Campers are expected to treat other campers and staff with attention and respect, and to fully participate in camp activities. If camper's behavior is disruptive or abusive, Camp staff has the right to dismiss camper without a refund. If camper cannot complete session for any reason other than illness, no refunds will be given. In the event of an emergency, if I cannot be reached, I give permission to the physician selected by camp staff to secure the health of my child as listed above. I understand that Kentucky Mudworks assumes no responsibility for accidental injury or death while my child participates in camp. I grant permission for the use of photographs of my child in promotional material.
